

62: Travel Plan

Practice

Kevin: Hey, Jun. What's up?

Jun: Not much. Have you made up your mind about where to go on your vacation?

Kevin: Well, I've narrowed it down to two countries. The first choice is Switzerland and the second is Indonesia. What do you think?

Jun: Well, Switzerland is one of the most beautiful countries in Europe. Are you going on a package tour?

Kevin: No, I'm not into package tours.

I really want to visit the Alps and take a hike, then head to the colorful villages to learn about local life.

Jun: Sounds exciting! I think Kauai Island is also beautiful. It's much warmer than in here. I can just picture you, tanned and relaxed, tasting delicious beer or maybe chocolate.

Kevin: Hahaha. I love beer but chocolate is not really my cup of tea.

Perhaps I should go to Kauai and stay at seaside resort, eating seafood and drinking coconut every day.

Anyhow, Indonesia is my second choice.

Jun: Right, so what does your family think about your plan?

Kevin: They're cool with that.

I'm glad they let me make my own decisions.

Jun: Lucky you. Hope you'll enjoy your time.

Let's talk

1. What are your upcoming travel plans?
2. When traveling, do you plan out your entire trip?
3. Are you afraid of going abroad alone?
4. What is the longest trip that you've taken?
